

Proposal Assessment Service

Compare the quality of your proposals to best-in-class standards. Identify specific ways to enhance competitiveness and create realistic improvement strategies.

1. Identify Strengths and Weaknesses of One or More Recent Proposals. Anticipate customer reaction to a specific proposal, audit a range of proposals against industry benchmarks, or gain an in-depth understanding of specific strengths and weaknesses of your company's proposals.
2. Target High-Value Improvement Strategies. Identify specific attributes of best-in-class proposals that can improve your competitiveness and develop a strategy to systematically improve future proposals.
3. Consider Broader Implications of System Readiness. Learn what specific proposal attributes reveal about your processes and your ability to capture new business.

Process and Materials

Shibley consultants will assess each proposal against seven categories containing 38 elements. Assessments of multiple proposals are compared and consolidated. An assessment report is presented that outlines the ratings of your proposals to best-in-class standards and a recommended strategy for improvements.

Each proposal is rated against rigorous qualitative and quantitative characteristics of winning business proposals.

Service Description

Our flexible service ranges from in-depth assessment of a single proposal to detailed audits and comparisons of multiple proposals for complex solicitations. We assess any type of proposal, from simple oral presentations to formal multi-volume and multi-media proposals.

Results are compared to a best-in-class profile developed from our consulting practice. Our improvement recommendations are realistic and results oriented. Assessment categories are linked directly to the Shibley Proposal Guide, providing a wealth of practical examples for best-in-class standards.

To produce consistent, reliable assessments across multiple proposals, our methodology is anchored to clearly defined assessment criteria.
